Furious Conflict In Progress on Left Wing Lying Near Coast Favors Allies

BELGIANS OPEN DYKES

Opening of Dykes Near Mouth of River Yser Compelles Germans to Recross Under Fire

BEHAVIOR OF ALLIES IS WONDERFUL

Paris, Oct. 30.—Officers returning here from the battle front declare that successes for the allies have grown out of the series of furious conflicts on the extreme left wing lying near the coast as well as in the vicinity of Ypres and Arras. Everywhere, they say, the Belgian, French and British forces have been able to resist the onslaughts of the German columns and to reply with counter attacks so full of vigor that they carried the allies always still farther front in the movement to recapture Belgium.

The unhesitating manner in which the Germans threw their men into the allied positions, time after time, these officers declare astonishing. The impression prevails that it was the determination of the Germans to break through at any cost. Their heroic sacrifices were in vain however for after they had used themselves as a human battering ram they were compelled to fall back without having accomplished their task.

The opening of the dykes by the Belgians near the mouth of the river Yser placed a formidable obstacle in the way of the Germans who were compelled to recross the river and in doing so suffered severely from the allies' artillery.

The attacks of the Germans today are reported not to have been accompanied with the vigor of their previous assault. The opposing forces were constantly in contact.

Troops Behave Wonderfully.
The behavior of all the allied troops under the terrific strain has been wonderful. Battalions of French marines, formed of supernumeraries from the fleet covered themselves with exceptional glory in a great bayonet charge along the coast line, which did much toward forcing the Germans to retire.

Around La Bassée both the allies and the Germans have displayed indomitable bravery in the hand to hand fighting which has been going on day and night for two weeks. First one side and then the other has taken the offensive and the line has swung some 200 miles away and sometimes that. The country is interspersed with ditches which make operations difficult and often these obstacles must be overcome by the troops in face of a withering fire.

On the entrenched line of the Somme, Oise and the Aisne frequent isolated actions occurred today, especially near Rheims. Both armies were so well buried in rifle pits and trenches however, that no important change in the positions was brought about.

More Discernable at Night.
The fact that the battle is progressing is more discernable at night than in the day when the powder renders the artillery and rifle fire almost invisible. In the darkness however, the flashes shoot out brightly and the roar and rattle of the cannon and machine guns seemed louder while the scene is brightened by the blaze from burning villages and farms.

WILL HAVE TO RAISE WASHINGTON ANTE TO GET WALTER JOHNSON

Star Pitcher Asserts That $5,000 a Year Will Not Tempt Him to Leave Washington.

Fort Smith, Ark., Oct. 30.—"They'll have to raise the Washington ante if they want me," said Walter Johnson, pitcher for the Washington American League baseball team here today. He further asserted that $15,000 a year would not tempt him to leave the Washington club.

Johnson admitted the St. Louis Federal offered him $15,000 for the 1915 season. "I can get that from Washington," he declared. "They'll have to do better than that."

He asserted he drew $12,000 a year from Washington under his contract which has just expired and admitted the Washington club had offered him an additional $3,000. However, he indicated the contract offered to him was for a long period, to which he was opposed.

CHARGED WITH MURDER OF WIFE AND CHILDREN

SCOTT STONE OF TALONA IS ARRESTED AT JEFFERSON BARRACKS

Army Recruit Admits His Identity and That His Wife and Four Children Perished in Fire Which Destroyed Their Home—States Attorney of Champaign County Orders Arrest.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 30.—Scott Stone enlisted in the United States army under the name of Joseph A. Talbot and whose wife and four children were burned to death in a fire that destroyed their home at Talona, Ill., September 28, was arrested at Jefferson Barracks, near here, today.

The arrest was made at the request of Lewis A. Busch, states attorney, of Champaign county, Ill. Two detectives who made the arrest say that the recruit admitted he was Scott Stone and that his wife and children perished in the fire, but refused to talk further.

According to telephone information received here a warrant charging murder has been issued at Champaign against Stone.

After the destruction of the Stone farm house by fire, a blood stained dress belonging to Mrs. Stone was found. At the coroner's inquest, Stone testified he was asleep in a room with his wife when he discovered the house was on fire and escaped by jumping out of a window. The states attorney of Champaign county said Stone enlisted in the army at Mattoon, Ill.

Evidence Warrants Arrest.
Champaign, Ill., Oct. 30.—Scott Stone, arrested today at Jefferson Barracks near St. Louis, is charged with the murder of his wife and four children in the warrant which was sworn out here by States Attorney Busch of Champaign county. Mr. Busch stated tonight he had gathered sufficient evidence to warrant him in having the warrant issued.

Mrs. Stone and her four children perished in a fire on the Stone farm, south of Champaign, September 28. The coroner's jury which investigated the case returned an open verdict.

A Woman in the Case.
States Attorney Busch tonight said that the states case was based on the testimony of a woman, who he said, asserted that Stone offered to get rid of his family if she would marry him.

This woman said when Stone first asked her to go west with him, she refused because of his wife and children. She said that the day before the fire he told her he would either be in jail the next day or she would see his name in the papers.

War News Summarized

The far east has taken for the moment at least the center of the stage of war. With a lessening in the hostilities in northern Belgium and France and with the situation, caused by Turkey's use of her warships against ostensibly friendly nations, not clear enough to reveal what its outcome will be, comes the announcement that the Japanese and British have begun a general attack on Germany's fortified base at Tsing-Tau.

The shelling of Tsing-Tau began with the dawn of the Japanese Emperor's birthday and at last accounts was proceeding vigorously. Tsing-Tau has been invested by land and sea virtually since the commencement of hostilities in Europe.

Severe fighting continues in Belgium but there is no mention by any of the war chancellors of a result of the sanguinary encounters of the early week. The British war offices say the British are steadily gaining grounds in the western wing but the German resistance is stubborn.

Of the operations along the line in northern France the French report a recrudescence of the activity near Rheims along the heights of the Meuse to the south of Frenes on the Woevre.

Germany made claim to successful attacks in the region of Neuport and Ypres and to the occupation of allied territory in the Argonne forest. Of the situation in the east Berlin offered no report.

Petrograd, on the other hand claimed continued successes on the east Prussian front and beyond the Vistula.

A news agency despatch gives a report from Constantinople that a naval battle between the Turks and the Russians is in progress off Odessa.

Another despatch from the same source reported manifestations at Damascus in favor of a war against the Christians and said Redouais were being massed along the Egyptian frontier. Turkish cavalry divisions are reported to be in the neighborhood of the Gulf of Akabah on the Red Sea.

It is officially announced that Indian troops are fighting both in Europe and Tsing-Tau with the Allies.

COMPLICATIONS OF WAR ARE INCREASED

Turkey's Action Greatly Widens Area of Conflict and Complicates Issues

WILL PROLONG THE WAR

Addition of Turkey to Belligerent Forces Likely to Prolong the War and Its Horrors

ENGLAND MUST RAISE MORE MEN

London, Oct. 30.—The complications of the European war have been increased by the entrance of the Turkish empire into the conflict on the side of the Tonic allies. Following the Brest-Litovsk, Russia, Turkish destroyers have sunk the Russian gunboat Donets in Odessa harbor and damaged three Russian and one French merchantman.

No official declaration of war has yet been made, but Turkey's action seems to make it probable that the area of conflict may be greatly widened and the issues complicated. The Balkans, whence spring the present European conflict, present such a network of hostile interests that Greece and the other Balkan nations may be drawn into the vortex.

Greece, it is believed, will likely be the first state now neutral to throw her weight against the Ottoman army. Bulgaria now holds a makeable position. She is bound to Russia by racial ties and to Great Britain by obligations for diplomatic support in the last war. But her interests and sentiments are violently hostile to Turkey and Greece.

An attempt to invade the Caucasus on one side and Egypt on the other is the program military men think the Turkish army is likely to endeavor to carry out. Turkish forces have been gathering recently in Syria and Palestine, but a march across the Sinai peninsula will be a hard one because the country is virtually a desert. The English papers are confident that the protection of the Suez canal against a raid and of Egypt against invasion are well provided for. They recognize that the addition of Turkey to the belligerent forces probably will prolong the war and increase its horrors. They say that this means that Great Britain must raise more men. How long Italy can remain aloof is a question that is being asked by the newspapers.

Described as Small Affair.
The Portuguese government describes the German invasion of Angola as a small affair, but it is thought here that it may result in bringing Portugal definitely into the general war on the side of the triple entente.

The western battle lines indicated that the Germans' desperate attempt to command the English channel has failed for the present. The flooding of the valley of the Yser canal together with the work of the British warships and of the Belgian army along the coast are reported to have compelled the Germans to withdraw somewhat, while the British and French are said to have been able to advance on the line further into the interior.

The British naval force near Neuport consists of three monitors, three cruisers and a battleship with 12-inch guns. Destroyers are protecting the ships from attacks by German submarines which have been hovering around the coast.

Preparing for Siege.
A German official report says that Dunkirk is preparing for a siege and that the populace is prepared to flood the locality in case of a German advance.

No important developments have been reported from Poland or Galicia today.

With the announcement that Baron Fisher will succeed Prince Louis of Battenberg as first sea lord of the admiralty the newspapers believe that the warfare on the part of the navy will be prosecuted sternly.

"The essence of war is violence; moderation in war is ineffectuality," is one of Admiral Fisher's sayings. A renewed demand is being made for the closing of the entire North Sea and the planting of mines there.

A majority of the newspapers express confidence in the loyalty to the country of Louis of Battenberg but a few of them consider that his resignation was wise and desirable.

CHARLES E. CHURCH SENDS BULLET THROUGH BRAIN

Former Secretary of the State Board of Prison Industries Commits Suicide.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 30.—Charles E. Church, former secretary of the state board of prison industries and later representative of A. J. Andrews and Co. of Chicago, committed suicide today at his home here. He was found in the bath room of his home with a bullet hole in his head. He was 63 years old.

Mr. Church shot himself through the right temple. His wife and daughter heard the shot and rushed up stairs to the bathroom. A physician was called, but the wound was mortal and death ensued in a few minutes.

Mr. Church served for some time as deputy inspector when former Governor Yates was internal revenue collector for the district, coming to Springfield from Quincy to accept the position. He was transferred by Governor Yates when the latter was elected to Chester penitentiary as parole agent, and was later given the same position at Joliet. Later he was made sales agent and then secretary of the state board of prison industries.

SPECIAL STEAMER TO CARRY FOOD SUPPLIES

FOOD FOR STARVING BELGIANS WILL BE SENT FROM NEW YORK

Decision to Ship Supplies to Rotterdam is Reached After Agreement for Working Cooperation With American Commission in London.

New York, Oct. 30.—A special steamer carrying a cargo of food supplies for the starving Belgians will be sent from New York to Rotterdam at the earliest possible date, it was announced today by the Belgian relief committee here. This decision was reached after several days of communication by cable with United States Ambassador Walter Hines Page in London and Minister Hebray Van Dyke in Holland following the perfection of complete working cooperation with the American commission in London.

From Rotterdam the cargo of food will be distributed by means of effective organizations just completed. The London American committee is opening offices in Rotterdam, Brussels, Ghent, Liege and other points. It has arranged close working cooperation with the Comité Central D'Secours et d'Alimentation Belge, whose organization extends over the whole of Belgium. This committee has been recognized by the German, Belgian and English governments as the accredited vehicle for help in Belgium.

Distribution is to be made in Belgium by the Comité Central Secours Belge. The American London committee already has purchased at an outlay of about $500,000 and has distributed in Belgium 9,000 tons of food. Sufficient food supplies are obtainable in London and Ambassador Page telegraphed back to the city its latest remittance of $50,000 intended for the purchase of supplies.

As adequate quantities of food which can be furnished only in this country can best be shipped from this city, the Belgian committee here has placed itself at the disposal of any one who wishes to assist its services. The supplies most needed, include wheat, rice, beans and peas. The committee has received several offers of foodstuffs in carload lots and hopes soon to be able to announce to which foodstuffs may be shipped, charges prepaid.

Direct advices received from the committee representatives indicate that the new reports in Belgium are extremely conservative. Ambassador Page said in a cable message today.

"Need in Belgium cannot be exaggerated. Owing to shortage of food here and in Holland, it is imperative that a supply be started from the United States immediately."

Chairman Herbert Hoover of the London committee cabled: "Situation is daily becoming more critical and it is very important to arrange for shipping supplies from New York at once."

Although the contributions to the fund yesterday brought it up to about $255,000 the need of cash is pressing. Previous to the consignment of $150,000 to the supply committee, considerable remittances had been made to Ambassador Page and Minister Van Dyke.

The committee suggests that persons who have the confidence of their respective communities should feel free to organize small auxiliary Belgian relief committees for the collection of funds, arranging with some bank to act as depository and remitting to the New York committee at the earliest possible moment.

Arrange for Shipment.
London, Oct. 30.—American Ambassador Page, Hebert Clark Hoover and other members of the American committee for the relief of the Belgians met today and arranged for the immediate shipment of foodstuffs from America to Rotterdam for Belgian distribution. Negotiations have been opened for the sending of food on a steamer leaving from San Francisco and on another ship sailing from New York.

The loading of the steamship Iris was hastened today and she sailed from the Thames late this afternoon carrying another 1,000 tons of food to Rotterdam. Reports received by Mr. Page however, have convinced him that the two shiploads of provisions now on their way aboard the steamers Coblenz and Iris will be wholly inadequate to allay the suffering until more food comes from America, even if ships are loaded immediately in the United States.

Mr. Church shot himself through the right temple. His wife and daughter heard the shot and rushed up stairs to the bathroom. A physician was called, but the wound was mortal and death ensued in a few minutes.

"It is not true that the president has in contemplation any plan for the closing of the mines in Colorado," the miners have claimed that if the federal troops are withdrawn, rioting is almost certain to follow, while the operators have told the president that they are employing as many men as possible and that they are having no trouble with their present employees.

RESIGNATION IS READ CONVENTION

Carranza Willing to Leave Mexico If Absence Will Tend Toward Peace

CAUSES TURMOIL IN HALL

Message Causes Turmoil and Spectators Attempt to Break Up the Meeting

NO ACTION TAKEN ON RESIGNATION

Mexico City, Oct. 30.—The resignation of General Venustiano Carranza as provisional president and first chief of the constitutional army based on the condition that Generals Villa and Zapata retire to private life, was read to the peace convention at Aguas Calientes today.

In the document General Carranza even expressed a willingness to leave the country if his absence would tend toward the reestablishment of peace.

The message caused a turmoil in the convention hall and at one time spectators tried to intervene and break up the meeting. Order finally was restored and business proceeded. What action, if any, was taken on the resignation, was not known here this evening.

Carranza's Statement.
In demanding that Villa and Zapata retire, General Carranza said: "There is a greater ambition than that of being president of the republic and that is to hold such military omnipotence as to permit one man to overstep all powers of union. The insistence of General Villa in keeping command of a division supposed to be all powerful and at the same time pretending to re-establish an once constitutional order upon the basis of the old regime is a clear indication that the dream of this chief is to constitute himself master of the destinies of Mexico with facilities to appoint a president, elect a congress, designate a supreme court and rule the government of all the states. I am ignorant of what the pretensions of General Zapata are but believe they will differ greatly from those of General Villa."

"I wish that my retirement from power shall not be sterile and that I am not merely to relinquish the field to enemies of the revolution, to chiefs with personal ambitions, consequently to the convention that I am disposed to deliver the command of the constitutional army and the executive power of the nation and if necessary to leave the country only under the three conditions."

"First, a preconstitutional government shall be established with the support of the constitutional army until such time as conditions justify a full legal, constitutional regime."

"Second, General Villa shall resign, not his candidature to the presidency or vice presidency, which have not been offered him, but military command of the northern division, retiring to private life and leaving the republic if the convention should vote that it would be wise for me to do so."

"Third, General Zapata shall resign his command likewise, turning the same over to a general designated by the convention."

General Carranza concluded his message as follows: "But if the only thing desired is to remove me from the leadership so that personal ambitions or reaction may find the way cleared I then declare that I am firmly resolved to serve the cause for which I have been struggling."

MAY WITHDRAW FEDERAL TROOPS FROM COLORADO

Gov. Ammons Says He Has Received Word That Troops Would Be Withdrawn November 15th.

Washington, Oct. 30.—No day has been fixed for the withdrawal of federal troops from the Colorado mine strike district, according to statements made today at the war department. Governor Ammons said yesterday he had received intimations that the troops would be withdrawn November 15, but it was said by officials here that no plan for such a step has been arranged.

President Wilson has received requests that he close down the mines in the strike zone unless the operators accept the settlement plan agreed to by the miners. Repeated reports that he might decide to close the mines caused the issuance of the following statement from the white house today:

"It is not true that the president has in contemplation any plan for the closing of the mines in Colorado."

The miners have claimed that if the federal troops are withdrawn, rioting is almost certain to follow, while the operators have told the president that they are employing as many men as possible and that they are having no trouble with their present employees.

WOMEN ENDORSE WORK OF NATIONAL ASS'N

ILLINOIS EQUAL SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION HOLD WRANGLING SESSIONS.

Resolution Finally Adopted Endorsing Work of the Congressional Committee of National Woman Suffrage Association.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—Two wrangling sessions of the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association today which for a time threatened to disrupt the organization ended late this afternoon with the adoption of a resolution endorsing the work of the congressional committee of the National Woman Suffrage Association, of which Mrs. Medill McCormick is chairman.

The action was accepted by friends of Mrs. McCormick as a victory over the administration as the state association several weeks ago declined to go on record as supporting the congressional committee of the national organization in issuing a blacklist of congressional candidates opposed to equal suffrage.

Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, state president at the night session asserted the congressional committee was actuated by wrong motives. At noon Mrs. McCormick and Mrs. Antoinette Funk rose to make reply. Mrs. Trout explained that the hotel management had asked for the aid at noon and adjourned the meeting amidst cries of protest from friends of Mrs. McCormick.

During recess Mrs. Funk sought the hotel management and said she was informed Mrs. Trout had requested that the hall be vacated at noon and not the management.

At the afternoon meeting Mrs. Funk rose to a point of personal privilege but Mrs. Trout denied her the floor. The convention, after considerable debate agreed to give her ten minutes at the conclusion of the program. When the time came she reviewed briefly the work of the congressional committee and asked that the Illinois association give it their endorsement. This was done and the storm was over.

OFFICIAL REPORTS

JAPAN

Tokio, Oct. 31.—11 a. m.—It is officially announced that a general attack was opened today on the German position at Tsing-Tau. The shelling of the fortress continues at this hour. The spirits of the allied troops are said to be high. The emperor's birthday is being celebrated today.

FRANCE
PARIS, Oct. 30.—11 p. m.—The following official communication was issued tonight: "In Belgium, according to the last despatch there is nothing to report in the region of Neuport or Dixmude."

"On our left wing the enemy has directed violent attacks against the front of the British troops and on the two banks of the La Bassée canal, without reaching any success."

GERMANY
BERLIN, Oct. 30.—Via London.—An official statement issued by the German army general headquarters says: "Our attacks to the south of Neuport and to the east of Ypres are being successfully continued. Eight machine guns and 299 British soldiers have been captured."

"In the Argonne forest our troops have occupied several blockhouses and points of support."

"To the northwest of Verdun the French attacked without success. In the other parts of the western arena the situation is unchanged."

ENGLAND
WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The British embassy today made public an official report of the naval operations on the coast of Belgium. It follows: "The British naval flotilla continues to support the allied left since the morning of 27th. The fire of the 12-inch guns has been brought to bear upon the German positions and batteries. Reports received from shore testify to the effect of that accuracy and to its galling character. The flank was thus thoroughly maintained yesterday and the day before. The enemy brought up heavy guns and replied vigorously to the fire of Admiral Hood's ships. Vessels received only trifling structural damage."

"Today the opposition from the shore practically ceased. The preponderance of naval gunnery seems to be established. Casualties were very slight throughout, one shell exploding on the destroyer Falcon, killed one officer and eight men and wounded one officer and 15 men. One killed and several wounded are reported from the Brilliant and eight wounded from the Rinaldo. The enemy's submarines have been reported seeking opportunity to attack the bombarding ships which are covered by British destroyers."

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.
Extra police will be in each ward of the city tonight, and arrests will follow destroyers of property and law violators.

FIGHT ON SENATOR SHERMAN

United Societies of Chicago Declare He is Unfair to Them and Should Be Defeated—Think Well of Sullivan.

According to the Chicago Tribune the United Societies of Chicago have started a hot fight on Senator Sherman and declare he must not be returned to the senate. The organization in the same article commends Roger Sullivan. The United Societies of Chicago were organized for the special purpose of fighting the anti-saloon forces of Illinois.

The Tribune article was in part as follows:

Under the caption "Sherman Must Be Beaten," the official organ of the United Societies for Local Self-Government, "Home Rule" demands the election of Senator Roger C. Sullivan. The article voices this demand appeared in the issue of "Home Rule" printed yesterday.

The subcaption carries the substance of the argument made by the United Societies in these words:

Coming election most important in years. Affecting question of personal liberty. Hobson resolution coming up in congress. Sumptuary laws in legislature. Put only trusted men on guard. Vote for Roger C. Sullivan.

Election of Great Import.

The article, in part, follows: "No election of recent years has been so fraught with momentous consequences to the United Societies and the principles which this organization represents as the coming one of Nov. 2. Far more important to us is this election than any presidential election since this organization has been in existence.

"In congress the hateful Hobson resolution for an amendment to the federal constitution providing national prohibition will come up again. It is decidedly essential that it be beaten, and beaten so soundly that its advocates will desist their impudent attempt to foist upon the people of the nation this menace to individual and national liberty and destroyer of home rule.

"Fear the Hobson Resolution. The liquor question is local and must be restricted to individual localities, and President Wilson's statement of the case in this respect leaves nothing unsaid. We agree with it absolutely.

"Nevertheless this issue will be raised in the next congress, and some misguided members of the president's party, together with misguided members of other parties will support the Hobson resolution and fight firmly for its adoption.

"The Hobson resolution must be beaten.

"Consequently it is necessary that men sent to congress must be firmly opposed to this vicious proposal, must be men upon whom we can thoroughly rely in their opposition to it, and especially is it necessary that men known to favor national prohibition shall be defeated.

"Sherman Opposed to Saloon. Therefore the first necessity of the day for our membership is to defeat Lawrence Y. Sherman for United States senator.

"Sherman is a pronounced foe to home rule and personal liberty. "Sherman when speaker of the Illinois house of representatives sent word to a delegation from the United Societies not only that he would not receive them and hear them in itself a hateful, bigoted, and unamerican thing to do in a nation where the right of petition and protest is guaranteed by the constitution, the fundamental law of the land—but in addition sent word that he would do all in his power as speaker to see prohibition legislation enacted.

"That is no sort of senator for the great state of Illinois, whose people are undoubtedly in the majority opposed to prohibition, and especially is no sort of senator for members of this organization.

Sullivan the Man. "For whom, then, must we vote? "After careful consideration of this subject the political action committee of the United Societies decided that the votes of all loyal members should go to Roger C. Sullivan, the Democratic candidate, whose views upon matters affecting personal liberty are known to be in harmony with our own and whose record assures us that he will make a capable and trustworthy senator.

As to Mr. Robbins. "There is a third candidate, Raymond Robbins, on the Progressive ticket. The United Societies know of nothing in Mr. Robbins' record detrimental to his selection, either on the score of fitness or as regards his views upon matters affecting the principle of this organization. Normally, this organization would be thoroughly content to have such of its members as share Mr. Robbins' political views vote for him, but the danger is too grave.

"The contest is between Mr. Sullivan and Sherman. It is of primary importance that Sherman be defeated. Therefore, every member of this organization is urged to support Mr. Sullivan earnestly and to do all consistently possible to insure his election, sinking for this purpose any political or other prejudice, for the crisis is too acute to permit patronizing.

Lawrence Y. Sherman must be defeated, and the only way to do it is to vote for Roger C. Sullivan."

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The members of the Patriarch club met Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Line on South Main street with a full membership present, as well as a few invited guests. A very happy afternoon was spent and the enjoyment came to an end after cake, chocolate and other dainty refreshments had been dispensed.

The South Side Circle met Friday afternoon with Mrs. James Strawn on South East street. Mrs. Ollie Parker was the leader and the subject was "Are our public schools meeting the demands of the people, if not why not?" The members entered into a good discussion of the subject. The refreshments were in keeping with the Halloween idea. For roll call capital of states were given. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. W. Lane.

The children of the Home Mission band of Grace church were entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Martin, 542 South Diamond street. They came dressed as red men and an Indian reception, sign language, refreshments and an Indian dance and bonfire made the time passed all too quickly.

Miss Alma Groves entertained a company Friday evening at the home of Mrs. James McBride, 719 East North street, at a china rush in honor of Miss Nellie Roach, whose wedding to John Meany is to take place soon. The guest list included twenty-five and a very pleasant evening was spent with games and music. Prizes were awarded to Misses Lena Carpenter, Margaret Gorman, Ida Harmon and Lillian Loneragan. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the decorations and pink and white chrysanthemums were used to a pretty effect. During the evening an excellent lunch was served. Miss Groves was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. James McBride, Mrs. E. A. Olds and Miss May Wallace.

The members of the Pansy circle Sunday school class of the Woodson Presbyterian church went to the home of their teacher, Miss Edith Colton Friday night and gave her a surprise, the occasion being her birthday. Games and music helped to pass away the gleeful hours and at a suitable time light refreshments were served, the guests taking along good things to eat. Miss Colton was given several presents which were highly appreciated.

Those present were Eugene Steinmetz, Howard Nichols, Hazel Eard, Ross Cunningham, Pearl Adams, Hazel Sullivan, Leo Sullivan, George Harrows, Marguerite Steinmetz, Clarence Morrow, Jewel Coleman and Edith Colton.

WOMEN'S WOES

Jacksonville Women Are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up" must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing down pains; they must stoop over when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with aching knees. Keeping the kidneys well has spared thousands of women much misery. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. J. H. Allen, 430 S. Main St., Jacksonville, says: "I can strongly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for they did me a world of good. Often I was so dizzy that I couldn't see and I also felt nervous. My kidneys were weak and I had backache. Doan's kidney pills fixed me up in good shape."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Allen had. Foster-McLarn Co. Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—advertisement.

Democratic Candidate for County Clerk

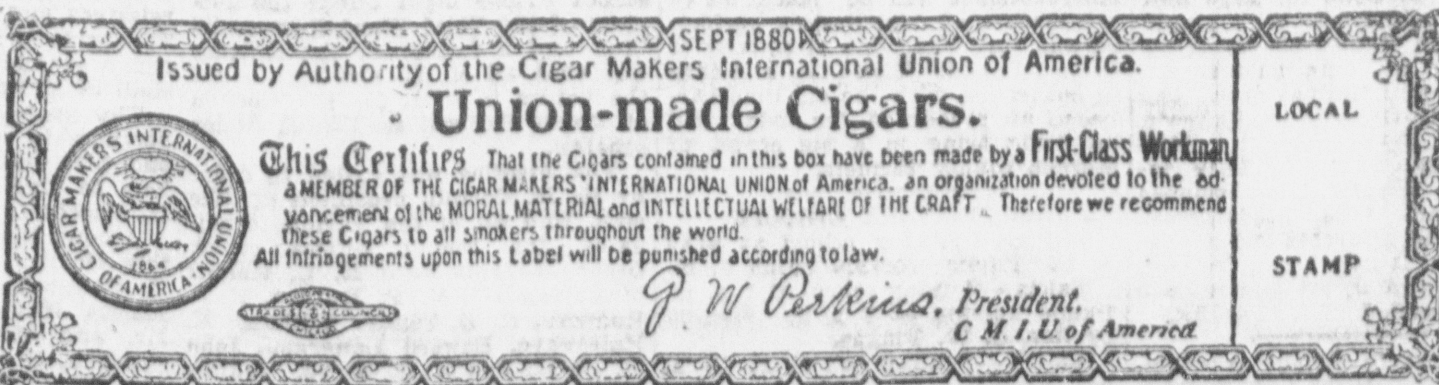

An Efficient County Officer Who Should Be RE-Elected

PRIOR to 1880 there was no organization, no regulation of hours or shop conditions in the cigar industry. Chaos reigned. Health was bad. Pay was poor. Hours were long and employment unsteady. In addition, the influence of labor in securing remedial legislation was lacking, owing to lack of organization. The birth and growth of the American labor movement brought with it, through its economic strength and its legislative influence the remedial legislation, both in the union and governmental bodies, which has shown remarkable results as regards health in our industries.

The following is taken from a report made by International President Perkins to the membership of the C. M. I. U. of A. It is a compilation of statistics gathered from the locals of the organization in the United States, Canada and Porto Rico. The figures are eminently correct and reliable. They indicate results obtained in the standard of health in the cigar industry through organization.

"In 1888, two years after the adoption of the eight-hour work day, 50 per cent of the deaths that year were caused by tuberculosis.
"In 1910, the total number of deaths was 588, of which number tuberculosis claimed 126, or 21 1-2 per cent.

JOHN J. REEVE

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY JUDGE OF MORGAN COUNTY

(Jacksonville Journal Editorial, October 31)
John J. Reeve was born and reared on a farm east of Jacksonville, and has lived in the county substantially all of his life. His ancestors having been among the earliest settlers in the county. He began the active practice of law in 1891, in Jacksonville with Morrison & Whitlock; served as City Attorney of Jacksonville from 1895 to 1899, and in 1899 formed a partnership with the late Isaac L. Morrison and Thomas Worthington, under the firm name of Morrison, Worthington & Reeve. This partnership continued until the death of Mr. Morrison in 1901, after which the firm name was Worthington & Reeve until 1912, when Mr. Hugh Green became a member of the firm.
Mr. Reeve's practice has brought him into one side or the other of most of the important litigation in this county, and of as much in adjoining counties.
He is now president of the Morgan County Bar Association, is a member of Grace M. E. church, Grand Master at Arms of the Order of Knights of Pythias. He is also a member of the I. O. O. F., M. W. A., Elks, Masons, including the Order of Knight Templar, a member of the Order of Red Men and of the Court of Honor.

Aside from criminal business, the County Court is now of far greater importance to the people of the county than the Circuit Court, as it handles a much greater volume of business affecting the most intimate business and domestic relations of the people. In all this class of business Mr. Reeve has had a wide experience, including such cases as the settlement of estates, special assessment and drainage matters, criminal cases, the management of the estates of minors and insane persons, the handling of matters relating to taxation, and such other subjects as necessarily come before the county court. His experience in all this class of business will be of great value to the people of the county, if he is elected county judge, and will give to them a large amount both in time and money. He already knows how to dispatch the business of the court and do it promptly. His experience, training and character eminently fit him for the office of County Judge and it is to the interest of the people that a person with these qualifications should be elected to that important office.

SPAULDING DECLARES HE SAW FRYE HERE FRIDAY

Street Commissioner is Certain Man Who Stole Routt and Brockhouse Cars Was in Jacksonville—Police Search brings no Clue.

According to the statement of Oliver Spaulding, street commissioner, W. H. Frye, of automobile fame was in the city yesterday. However, a diligent search made by police failed to locate Frye after Mr. Spaulding said he had seen him in the vicinity of the C. & A. cattle yard north of the city. Mr. Spaulding, who knows Frye well, says that while he was on Myrtle street repairing a culvert about 11 o'clock Friday morning that he saw Frye walking along the C. & A. railroad track, that the traveler had a coat on his arm and a revolver protruding from each hip pocket. He says that he spoke to Frye at the time and is certain as to the man's identity.

He subsequently reported the matter to the police department and Chief Davis sent practically all of the day force out to that locality. They traveled in buggies and were armed with riot guns, but they were unable to locate Frye or anyone else who answered his description. Subsequent to Frye's sensational escape from the jail here and his overpowering of a policeman at Beardstown, he is reported to have been seen at Keokuk and was said to have been armed at that time with two revolvers.

Mr. Spaulding said last night, "I am certain the man I saw was Frye as I was within thirty feet of him and looked at him closely. A number of other persons also saw him at the time and all were of the opinion the man was Frye. He wore blue trousers, a brown shirt, a soft hat and carried his coat over his arm and used a belt instead of suspenders. The coat was made of material showing a small check. The man was wearing a pair of steel hip protectors." This description indicates that Mr. Spaulding took a careful look at the man.

The rumors of Frye's return caused some uneasiness as it is said that he has made threats that there is someone in Jacksonville that he is going to "get." It is understood that a reward of $100 for his apprehension has been offered.

A meeting of the Parent-Teacher association of the First Ward was held at Jefferson school Friday afternoon when the question of the petition of the high school students asking for permission to dance in the gymnasium in the new Eighth Grade building, was discussed. Each one present expressed an opinion on the subject and when a vote was taken it showed forty against granting permission to dance, but none voted in favor of it.

MEETING WITH GRATIFYING SUCCESS.

A recent issue of the St. Louis Globe contains an account of a meeting of the household science section of the Madison County Farmers' Institute and mentions Miss Nellie Reaugh of this city and sixty four other domestic science pupils of the Collinsville township high school. Miss Reaugh has been instructor in domestic science in the Collinsville Township High school for some years and the department has had a most satisfying growth under her efficient direction and both she and her pupils are frequently called upon to give demonstrations before St. Louis societies.

IN IOWA.

Ottumwa, Iowa, October 27, 1914.

Going and coming from Nebraska, we have stopped here a few days. Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, in or about the year 1855, published his poem, "Hiawatha." It was perhaps his longest attempt in poetry, and, at the time was received with much lightness and considerable alleged fun was made at the expense of poetry and author. But it was really a great historical farewell to the people who occupied our land, and which gave to many an American "Hiawatha" was somewhat like feature a typical and beautiful name the "Gettysburg Address" of Lincoln; its worth was not at first realized. But it is coming into its own, and the dramatic presentation of it by real Indians is tending to impress it indelibly—as should be—upon our people.

In that wonderful verbal imagery of the Red Man he spoke the words:

Iowa, Iowa, and he meant "beautiful, beautiful land." Such was the natural quality of the Hawk Eye state, delightful as was the sister Sucker state, in laying out of its hills and prairies and in its richness of natural productions for the pleasure and sustenance of man.

An early settler of this state tells of traveling for miles through fields of wild strawberries, which as crushed by horses' feet or wheels, left a crimson trail behind him. The region now called Iowa was first visited by Paleolithic invaders from France, Canada and Lake Michigan. In June, 1673, when Marquette and Louis Joliet came from the Wisconsin river into the Mississippi; they crossed the great river, having viewed it, as Marquette said: "With a joy I cannot express." A short distance beyond the "Father of Waters" the explorers found first some Illinois Indians. These received the French with kindness and lavish hospitality of their kind.

Longfellow put Marquette's account of this first meeting with the Illinois into the closing scene of his "Hiawatha." In passing, it is said, that Marquette and Joliet returned homeward from the junction of the Illinois river with the Mississippi, and then gave to civilization the grand empire now called Illinois. Hennepin came next, upward from the mouth of the Mississippi, and up through the Illinois river, in 1680. Duluth joined Hennepin in the west in April, 1682, and LaSalle, at the mouth of the Mississippi took possession of all the region for the king of France.

Nicholas Perrot, another son of La Belle France, found the upper mines in Illinois and Iowa—Galena and Dubuque—May 8, 1689. At the time the Europeans came the Indians of this section were living in a very low condition of savagery. In 1763, Iowa passed under the rule of Spain. Lewis and Clark skirted its west shore in 1804, and Zebulon Pike, whose peak overhangs Denver and Colorado, passed along the east shore in 1805.

The defeat of Black Hawk in his war fought on the soil of Illinois, opened Iowa to white occupation in 1833. Iowa became the first free state of the Louisiana Purchase. It was a part of Michigan in 1834, then of Wisconsin in 1836, and in 1838 became a territory, blooming into statehood in 1846.

It was not until 1837 that the Agency with the Indians was established in this county, and in May, 1843, by the New Purchase, the whites rushed into and began occupying this region. It is called Wapello county from the old chief who divided early day attention with Black Hawk and Keokuk.

Burlington was the first capital of the state, to which Van Buren sent Robert Lucas, a former governor of Ohio, as territorial governor. Ottumwa was platted as the county seat in 1844, and at first grew slowly. But the steamboat came up here on the Des Moines river by 1849, and the town "picked up." The coming here of the Burlington railroad in 1859 ended steamer visits, but made for a finer business point here. In 1850 the town had 500 inhabitants. Today it has over 22,000 people, and Wapello county has over 37,000. More than the population of our Morgan county.

Ottumwa.

Ottumwa is an up hill and down dale town, and the bluffs rise far above the river, giving pretty and impressive views. The town has been settled by an enterprising and intelligent class of people, and has grown in its commercial and other material ways, as well as in attractiveness as a home city.
While the population of Ottumwa is not so much greater than that of Jacksonville, it has a much larger trade, and appears more like an established city—as cities do in the East. There is considerable manufacturing and jobbing here, besides packing houses. There are quite large stores—large stocks, and opera house and movie places to spare. There is a splendid post office building, housing also a United States court. The county has a large court house, well built of stone, upon a commanding site. The city is full of fine locations for large and attractive residences, with ample grounds. The Public Library is an elegant stone building, adorned inside with good paintings upon the walls. The Burlington has its main line through here, while the Milwaukee & St. Paul, the Rock Island and the Wabash bring business to town and take goods away. There are fine churches and a central public park hanging on the side of the hill, and street cars radiate out where needed.

MORTUARY

Hoskin.

Word has been received in the city of the death of C. M. Hoskin, father of Asa Hoskin who was formerly superintendent of the Jacksonville Railway company. Mr. Hoskin passed away at his home in Venice, Ill., recently. Mr. Hoskin formerly resided in Jacksonville and was past consul of Camp No. 132, M. W. A., of this city. He was born in Derry township, Pike county June 25, 1850 and is survived by a widow, two sons and two daughters.

Craig.

Friends in the city have received word announcing the death of Mr. Samuel Craig, who passed away at his home in Minneapolis, Minn., Friday. Mr. Craig suffered a stroke of paralysis several years ago and has been an invalid since.

Mr. Craig resided in Jacksonville on South Main street several years ago and is well known here. He was a brother of W. T. Craig of Woodson and is survived by a widow and two daughters, Mrs. Roberts of New York City and Mrs. Clark of Minneapolis. Mr. Craig's wife was Miss Abbie Sutton, daughter of Stephen Sutton, who was for many years circuit clerk, his office being in the old court house that stood in the square.

The remains will arrive in Jacksonville Monday afternoon and a notice of the funeral arrangements will appear later.

The Willing Workers of Pisgah church will hold a market Saturday, Oct. 31, at Johnson, Hackett & Guthrie's.

DR. HIERONYMUS WILL MAKE ADDRESS TODAY

Community Address Will Be Heard at Court House Meeting.

The address by Dr. Hieronymus, community adviser of the University of Illinois, which will be given at the court house this afternoon at 2:30, promises to be one of great interest and value. As previously stated, Dr. Hieronymus, since assuming the duties of his present position, has been of large aid to the farmers of a number of Illinois counties in arriving at a solution of problems of mutual interest. The committee appointed some time since relative to the formation of a Morgan county farmers' club will meet again at 1:30 this afternoon prior to this address, and it is probable that at that time definite announcement will be made as to the manner of organization perfected and just what line of activity is to be followed. These two meetings in connection with the old time bar-becue all scheduled for today will no doubt bring in a big crowd of Morgan county farmers.

Democratic Candidate for County
Superinten't

Mr. Vasconcellos as Superintendent.
(Editorial from Jacksonville Courier).

He Has Had Six Years Experience in Conducting
This Office

Herbert H. Vasconcellos was chief assistant to Harry C. Montgomery, county superintendent of schools, nearly six years just past, and now is himself county superintendent following Mr. Montgomery's resignation. Prior to taking up this work, Mr. Vasconcellos taught in the Morgan county schools and holds a first grade teacher's certificate. His training in the office of county superintendent was entirely under the personal direction of Mr. Montgomery, who is widely known as one of the best men in this work in central Illinois. Mr. Vasconcellos was appointed by the county commissioners to fill the unexpired term left by Mr. Montgomery and will hold the office under this appointment until Dec. 1, 1914.

These facts make Mr. Vasconcellos an unusually strong candidate for election to this office, for which he was nominated by the Democratic party at the September primary. He is a young man in years, but old in experience—much older than the average man of his age. That he is thoroughly qualified successfully to conduct the affairs of the county superintendent's office is beyond dispute. The mere fact that he is now efficiently carrying on the business of this branch of county government is proof of this. Any Morgan county school teacher will testify to the fact.

Mr. Vasconcellos is a son of the late Martin Vasconcellos, who died when the present Democratic candidate was 2 years old. The young man worked his way through school and always has been largely thrown upon his own resources. Among his other activities he has made a special study of the school laws of Illinois and is well qualified to give the advice required from a county superintendent to the country school directors. The election of Mr. Vasconcellos on Nov. 3 means that the work of the superintendent's office will go on from Dec. 1, 1914, without the interruption incident to a changing of heads. He now has the work well in hand, having assumed the superintendency on Aug. 1, last.

In conducting the business of the county superintendent's office a great deal more than mere ability to teach school is necessary. The work is at least half of a business character and requires one who has had experience in this side as well as experience in actual work. Particularly by his long association with the office has Mr. Vasconcellos developed this ability so that he is essentially the man for the place.

Judge

Especially Fitted for County Judge

(Editorial from Jacksonville Courier).

His Practice Is Extensive in County and Probate Courts

William E. Thomson, Democratic candidate for county judge, is especially well qualified for this office—one very important reason being that a large part of his practice, more perhaps than any other Morgan county attorney, is in the county and probate courts, over which the county judge has jurisdiction. In addition to this, Mr. Thomson is a young man of keen judgment and fair mind, and his standing is such that there can be no doubt that his judicial decisions will absolutely be fair and impartial.

Mr. Thomson is a native of Menard county and a graduate of the George Washington university at the national capital, one of the best in the United States. Upon completing his university work and receiving his diploma, Mr. Thomson came to Jacksonville to practice and since that time has taken an active part in the community life. He has made his way in the world through hard work and by applying himself in earnest to the tasks before him, and he is deserving of the hearty support of voters in all parties. He will make a county judge of whom the county may well be proud.

Mr. Thomson is so thoroughly familiar with the work of the office to which he seeks election that if he is placed upon the bench he will be able to take immediate hold of the duties and pursue the work without a hitch.

WAR CAUSES RECORD EXPORTATION OF FOOD

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE ANALYZES DEMAND.

Many Trade Currents Broken by the European Upheaval, Shift to the United States—Value of Foodstuffs Sold Abroad in September Was $68,490,889.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Wars demand on American granaries, mills and packing houses, as shown today in an analysis by the department of commerce, resulted in record exportations of breadstuffs, meats and other food articles during September. Many trade currents broken by the European upheaval, have shifted to the United States; France demanding immense quantities of fresh beef; South America and Europe buying large amounts of flour, while nearly all the markets formerly supplied from other sources are importing millions of pounds of American sugar.

The value of foodstuffs sold abroad last month was $68,490,889, nearly double that of September a year ago, when the total was $38,786,624.

The war demand for wheat brought exports for the three months ending with September to the highest point ever reached in any corresponding periods. Total exports, including flour in terms of wheat, in the three months aggregated 89,250,000 bushels compared with 59,000,000 bushels in that period a year ago. For September the exports of flour were about normal, but the wheat sold abroad was more than twice that exported during the month. The wheat total was 26,000,000 bushels. France bought 7,572,000 bushels, the United Kingdom, 6,410,000; the Netherlands, 2,201,000, while other European nations bought 5,390,000 bushels. More than 2,500,000 bushels were exported to Canada, while another effect of war was the shipment of 580,000 bushels to Brazil.

Exports of flour to Latin America nearly doubled those of September one year ago.

Exports of fresh beef in September amounted to 7,000,000 pounds, eleven times that sent abroad in September 1913. The 3,000,000 pounds of canned beef exported was eight times the amount sold in September last year.

The increase in refined sugar exports was tremendous in September 52,290,773 pounds were shipped abroad, compared with 3,924,540 one year ago. Other gains for September show by the department figures were:

BRYAN'S DAUGHTER TELLS ABOUT WAR CONDITIONS

Mrs. Reginald A. Owen Writes from London View Point—If Wife of Lieutenant in Active Service on Continent.

A Jacksonville friend of the family of William J. Bryan has just received a clipping from a New York newspaper which gives extracts from a letter written by Mrs. Reginald Owen formerly Miss Ruth Bryan and now the wife of an English army officer. The clipping is in part as follows:

Mrs. Richard L. Hargreaves has received a letter from her sister, Mrs. Reginald A. Owen, formerly Ruth Bryan, telling of conditions in London. Lieutenant Owen who has been stationed in England since the war began, had been sent for from headquarters when Mrs. Owen wrote. He was assigned to active service and will be in charge of telephone and telegraph service over a large area of the scene of fighting on the continent. Mrs. Owen is active in relief work in London and with Mrs. Hoover has charge of the economic relief fund of the American women's war relief organization.

In telling of conditions in England she said: "Refugees from Belgium are pouring into London by the thousands. The sinking of one three British ships made 199 widows in the town of Chatham alone. Trainload after trainload of wounded comes in and hospital after hospital is filled with the wounded men."

"On the big open green park of our suburb 8,000 troops are camped. It looks like a battlefield. Even the cannons are being dragged about to give the horses practice. Almost every family has sent some relative to the front. The censors will allow no one at the front to write anything home excepting mere assurances of their safety, for fear of news leaking back to the enemy."

"Imagine the anxiety of waiting while the war goes on almost without hearing distance. What a blessing the channel is to England. Otherwise we might have suffered as Belgium has."

"It is strange to see London almost in darkness at night and great searchlights searching the sky for Zeppelins. A British ship also patrols the sky over London night and day."

"A prayer for the soldiers which is being widely used in England is: 'Protect thy servants on land, on sea, under the sea and in the air.'"

The organization with which Mrs. Owen is doing relief work has furnished a hospital in which 133 wounded soldiers were quartered at the time her letter was written. It has furnished six automobile ambulances. In the factories which have been established to give employment to destitute women and to furnish materials for relief work, sixty women are employed in one eleven in another, with prospects for an immediate increase in numbers, and thirty women in a third.

The executive committee of the American women's war relief organization is made up of Lady Paget, president; Mrs. John Astor, vice president; the duchess of Marlborough, chairman; Lady Lowther and Mrs. Harcourt, secretaries; Walter Burns, treasurer; Lady Randolph Churchill, chairman of hospital committee; Paris Singer, organizing manager of hospital committee; Mrs. Hoover and Mrs. Owen, officers of the relief fund.

The organization has issued the following pamphlet, a copy of which was enclosed in Mrs. Owen's letter to Mrs. Hargreaves: "We American women of England, wanting to show our sympathy with Great Britain in her hour of trial, have offered a fully equipped surgical hospital in connection with the Red Cross society for sailors and soldiers wounded in the war. If funds permit we wish to extend our work by providing an ambulance ship to convey the wounded. We also are organizing a relief committee to provide as much work as possible for women thrown out of employment by the present crisis. This committee will work in connection with Queen Mary's needlework guild. Will you help by contributing money, clothing or by personal service. All contributions should be sent to Mrs. Reginald A. Owen, 27 Park Lane, Albert Gate S. W. London." W. C. Wilson and other Lincoln men have collected funds for relief work, which they have sent to Mrs. Owen.

SITUATION IS WATCHED.
London, Oct. 29.—Telegraphing from northeastern France a correspondent of the Central News says: "The situation around La Bassée is being carefully watched. The Germans have adopted the tactics which proved so successful at Antwerp. They are apparently endeavoring to drive a wedge into the allies by sheer weight of gunfire."

"North of Lille all continues well, though the Germans have brought up powerful reserves."

"The Belgians once more are in the thick of the fray."

MUST HAVE FREEDOM.
London, Oct. 29.—"The Hague, minister of the interior," says Reuters correspondent at The Hague, "has issued telegraphic instructions to the Dutch officials engaged in handling the Belgian fugitives in Holland that the invitation extended to these fugitives to return to their own country must not degenerate into open compulsion and that the refugees shall be allowed freedom of choice either to remain or to depart. Those of the Belgians who are destitute will continue to receive assistance."

"The statement published in the Dutch papers that distribution of food among the Belgians was to be restricted and later stopped entirely is officially denied."

NAMES OFFICERS KILLED.

London, Oct. 29.—A casualty list, dated October 24th and 27th issued tonight gives the names of twenty-three officers killed, forty eight wounded and seventeen missing.

Among the killed are Captain, the Honorable Charles Henry Stanley Monck of the Coldstream guards, heir of Viscount Monck and Lieutenant Colonel W. L. Loring of the Royal Warwickshire regiment.

In the list of wounded appear the names of Major Lord Esme Charles Gordon Lennox of the Scots guards, second son of the Duke of Richmond; Lieut. Col. G. P. T. Fielding of the Coldstream guards; Brevet Lieut. Col. C. G. Stewart of the Royal Field Artillery and Lieut. Col. Hugh David White-Thomson of the Royal Horse artillery.

Prayer For Help

"God bless our army and our navy, and help us knock the blooming gravey from Graustark, o'er the way." Thus prays the King of Zenda, nightly, then takes his gory ax politically, and bloody, kneels gravely in his royal study, and prays for aid divine; "Jehovah, hear a monarch pleading and send the bullets we are needing, along our battle line. Send us a raft of swords and lances, if you would multiply our chances to whip that sinful crew; Oh, send us guns and smokeless powder, and send my starving soldiers chowder, and send them P. D. Q." The God of Battles must be weary; through all the ages, long and dreary. He's heard that tale of souls of soldiers fleeing from blood red fields below. He must be sick of King and Colonel, of ruin, wreck and waste infernal, of charre and shock and thud; of Butcher Caesars and of Norods, of praying kings and braying heroes, and captains drunk with blood. Oh, not on crimson fields distressing will God bestow His sovereign blessing, and not on gory arms; but it will come when soldiers wander back from the strife and horror yonder, back to their homes and farms.

Planning for the Stork's Arrival

Among those things which all women should know of, and many of them do, is a splendid external application sold in most drug stores under the name of "Mother's Friend." It is a penetrating liquid and many a mother tells how it so wonderfully aided them through the period of expectancy. Its chief purpose is to render the tendons, ligaments and muscles so pliant that nature's expansion may be accomplished without the intense strain so often characteristic of the period of expectancy.

"Mother's Friend" may therefore be considered as indirectly having a splendid influence upon the early disposition of the future generation.

Whatever influence to the ease and comfort of the mother should unquestionably leave its impress upon the nervous system of the baby.

At any rate it is reasonable to believe that since "Mother's Friend" has been a companion to motherhood for more than half a century it must be a remedy that women have learned the great value of.

No more timely advice could be given the inexperienced mother than to suggest the daily use of "Mother's Friend" during the interval of expectancy.

Ask at any drug store for "Mother's Friend," a penetrating, external liquid of great help and value. And write to Bradford Regulator Co., 302 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their book of useful and timely information.

The effect of this splendid external application is an expression of the thousands of women who have successfully used it and recommended it through two generations.

FARMER'S WIFE TOO ILL TO WORK

A Weak, Nervous Sufferer Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Kasota, Minn.—"I am glad to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than anything else, and I had the best physician here. I was so weak and nervous that I could not do my work and suffered with pains low down in my right side for a year or more. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I feel like a different person. I believe there is nothing like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weak women and young girls, and I would be glad if I could influence anyone to try the medicine, for I know it will do all and much more than it is claimed to do."—Mrs. CLARA FRANKS, R. F. D. No. 1, Maplecrest Farm, Kasota, Minn.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should be convinced of the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health by the many genuine and truthful testimonials we are constantly publishing in the newspapers.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

JACKSONVILLE DISPOSES OF SURPLUS ON BOND ISSUE

Law Suggested by Jacksonville Citizens Enables Money to be Used for School Purposes.—Franklin Repudiated Bond Issue.

The burning of the bonds at Waverly Wednesday evening purchased for the building of the Jacksonville and Southern railway has occasioned much comment by the older citizens, regarding the road. One citizen recalled that Franklin township 14-9 who had secured $50,000 worth of bonds repudiated the same because of a technicality, the road going to Waverly instead of Scottville as at first planned. These bonds were sold to a number of innocent people.

At that time J. H. Hackett was chairman of the Jacksonville township 15-10. Jacksonville subscribed for $50,000 worth of bonds and some citizens wanted to repudiate them, but the better element prevailed. After the bonds were paid off and destroyed and the delinquent taxes collected, the railroad being a big transgressor on the delinquent tax factor, a surplus of from $1,000 to $1,500 was left in the hands of Sheriff Irvin Dunlap. The levy was made as well as could be, and was quite satisfactory.

After Mr. Dunlap had the money for 5 years Mr. Hackett asked him what he expected to do with the money and the sheriff replied that he was puzzled just what disposition to make of it. Edw. L. McDonald was treasurer of the township board and a member of the legislature. Mr. Hackett suggested that Mr. McDonald get a bill through the legislature which would cover the question of the disposition of the money. Such a law was passed, which was in substance that the money should go to the school fund. The city schools received some $900 and the remainder was pro-rated within the township.

Mr. Hackett stated that he and two other men were present when the bonds were burned and there wasn't any demonstration either. The bonds burned at Waverly were not the original bonds but those those later issued.

HOME FROM GERMANY.

Herman Englebach of Arenzville was in the city Friday on business. He recently returned from a visit with relatives in Germany where he went about five months since. Mr. Englebach was ready to return home some weeks ago, but had difficulty in securing passage such as one wishes, and finally came across the water on the Red Cross steamer. He departed for his home before he could be seen yesterday by the reporter who wished to get a story of his experience within the war zone, which would have doubtless been of an interesting nature.

TO THE VOTERS OF MORGAN COUNTY

I sincerely appreciate the sentiment in Morgan county this year to vote for a man for the legislature from Morgan county, and I will not try to persuade you that that sentiment is wrong.

Because I have always contended that you were entitled to a nominee, I have never come into Morgan Co., to secure votes preceding a primary election.

Notwithstanding this, however, Morgan county has always given me a very large vote both at the primaries and the elections.

I have always sincerely appreciated that vote and especially so two years ago when I was elected by only 239 votes and had it not been for the votes given me in Morgan county, local option would have had one less vote in the last legislature.

To those who may wish to vote for me this year, I make the following statement and pledge:

As your Representative, I have kept faith with the people of this district.

Have cared for the interests of Morgan county as carefully as I have those of Sangamon.

Have voted for every sane progressive measure, honestly introduced.

Have never neglected my duty in attendance at sessions or committee work.

Worked and voted, during the last session, to keep the appropriations down to the minimum, that the burden of taxation might be lightened.

As a matter of conviction, I have consistently voted for all reasonable legislation, the passage of which, would tend to lessen the evils of the liquor traffic.

If this record suits you—repeat the vote and I will repeat the record.

Yours sincerely,
Thos. E. Lyon.

OHIO HEROES GET MOST CARNEGIE MEDALS

OF SIXTY-NINE AWARDS OHIO MEN RECEIVE NINETEEN.

Men and Boys of State Display Great Heroism During Days of Flood—Occupations Given in the Lists Show Heroes in Every Walk of Life.

Pittsburgh, Pa., October 30.—Ohio has a fine record as a mother of heroes, as well as presidents, according to the awards of medals made by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission here today. In all sixty-nine acts of heroism are recognized; nineteen to the credit of Ohio men and boys. This is more than twice as many as appear for any other state, (Michigan having nine, and the others scattered among nineteen states.

March 25 and 26, 1913, were the great hero-making days, twenty-one of the heroic acts in the list given today having been recalled from those days of flood along the Ohio and its tributaries.

In all, fifteen silver medals and fifty-four bronze medals are awarded. Thirteen of the heroes lost their lives, and to the dependents of ten of these pensions or sums of money to be applied subject to the discretion of the commission, are granted. In fifty cases sums aggregating over $60,000 are appropriated for education, purchase of homes, or other worthy purposes that may be approved by the commission.

Accidents in the water called forth by far the largest number of heroic acts—51 in all; and students figure most prominently in the rescue work, but the occupations given in the lists show there are heroes in every walk of life, from clergymen to laborers.

There are six heroines: Margaret Guy, aged 16, of South Boston, Mass., who saved a lad three years her senior from drowning; Mary Allen of Big Rapids, Mich., who rescued two girls from drowning in Rose Lake, Leroy, Mich.; Sophia Thomas, of Newry, S. C., who rescued a girl from a rabid dog; Phoebe Briggs, a Vassar College girl, who saved three college mates from drowning; Mrs. Lillian M. Coburn, who saved two men from burning at Susanville, California, and Frances Spanke, a fourteen year old girl of Hartman, Ark., who lost her own life in saving another girl from being killed by a train.

TO THE VOTERS OF MORGAN COUNTY

I am a candidate for county superintendent of schools.

I have had years of experience in teaching in Morgan county schools and one term as county superintendent.

It is conceded on all sides that I have been successful as a teacher and that I made a good record as county superintendent. I would not ask for the office if I did not feel that my experience as a teacher in every grade in the common school and every year in the high school had not fitted me for the position.

Moreover, I am familiar with the work of supervision so essential in connection with the routine work of the office, or work that requires little more than clerical ability.

It is hardly to be supposed that any person can have a very clear conviction of the best method of doing a thing who shall not at first have acquired a rather correct and adequate idea of what is to be done.

But to have such idea of a subject and the best method of learning or teaching it, is no light attainment. Certain it is that years of experience in the actual work of teaching and supervision are essential to successful work as county superintendent; while lack of such experience puts all school work on an experimental basis.

The school interests are interests of great importance; not interests to be passed over flippantly as if of no considerable moment, for these interests are interwoven with all the hopes and fears of humanity from the school room to the tomb. It is a far cry from the school to the safety of the Republic; yet the school is to be regarded as the strongest pillar in the structure of our government.

The future of the boys and girls in our schools depends largely upon their work in the school room. If the work be good, their prospects for success, when the school days are no more are enhanced; if the work be poor, their future may be a failure.

This state expends yearly large sums for the education of the youth of our commonwealth; not because of the mere fact that the youth are of her citizenship; but because of the absolute fact that she must educate for her own preservation. As is the school, so is the state; for the children of today are the rulers of tomorrow. The state finds it cheaper to educate than build prisons and establish courts for the prosecution of wrong doers. Thus it will be seen in the ultimate analysis of the question that the safety and permanence of our republic rests upon our schools. In a certain sense education is the cheap defense of a nation, and in the same sense the hope of our country is in her schools.

Recent years have witnessed many changes in school work. The old order is no more and the new adaptation prevails. The present age demands different methods of instruction to be observed as well as different subjects to be taught. The common school has been raised to a higher plane, and those in charge of our higher institutions of learning are looking forward hopefully to the day when all the children of all the land shall have yet better facilities for acquiring knowledge. The late legislative acts aim at better education.

It may not be possible at present to effect all that some think desirable; but, favored as our country is, with great facilities for carrying forward the work, there seem to those who reflect upon the matter and compare the present educational advantages with those of the past, hardly any assignable limits beyond which such improvement may not be carried.

In conclusion I would say that it is for the voters to decide, November 3rd, who shall fill the office of county superintendent for the ensuing term. I will appreciate the support and influence of every one that favors me, for that important position and if elected will discharge the duties of the office to the best of my ability.

Very truly,
Hart A. Withee.

HOG FEEDERS

100 bushel size

surely will be convinced it is the only way to feed. They are running on my wheat stubble sown in colver, all eat regular and perfectly healthy. If I tell you what they are gaining you could not believe it, so come and see them, and you will say they are doing better than hogs fed twice the amount of dry grain.

Yours for producing more beef and pork.

ST. LOUIS CATTLE MARKET.
Cattle receipts this week have been a great deal lighter than they were a week ago and all kinds show considerable advances. The beef steers are unevenly higher, and the advance shown ranges from 7 1/2c to 11.00 a cwt. on the cattle selling here last week under 9c. We saw cattle last week sell at 8c that we think this week would bring better than 9c. Many sales this week are around 7 1/2c above the low time of last week on cattle selling at 8c. The quality has been fairly good. The light weight butcher yearling steers and heifers show from 25 to 35c higher, the medium to pretty good kinds show 50c to 1.25 a cwt. advance. We sold a string of heifers today at 78 1/2c weighing less than 700 pounds that would have had to be pushed last week to bring 76 1/2c.
The cow market on the good cows is from 60 to 75c higher and in extreme cases there have been sales made that show more. Plenty of cattle have sold here this week at 7c that last week would have been at good at $6.25; while the cows now selling around $5.65 to $6.75 would hardly have brought 5c last Thursday.

Stockers and feeders are 50 to 65c higher. While we anticipated a better market with lighter receipts we did not expect to see so much put on in one week, and it only goes to prove the fact that this market is going to get higher when receipts fall off. We believe that the sharp advances this week will have a tendency to cause the receipts to become heavier next week and anything like a run will materially break the market.

Hog receipts today were 9,000
the market was 5c to 10c lower;
top $7.70. Most of the good hogs sold $7.50 to $7.65; lights 130 to mixed, $7.30 to $7.50; pigs largely $6.75 to 7c, rough packers
$7.10 to $7.20. Look for light receipts and at least a steady market the next few days.

Hallowe'en at Murrayville.
The Ladies' Aid society of the Murrayville M. E. church held a Hallowe'en social in the basement of the church Friday night, which was largely attended. The decorations were in pumpkins, corn stalks, Jack-o-lanterns. The guests were lead into the basement which had been darkened following a rope by which they found their way. A number wore masks which added amusement to the occasion. Miss Emma Rimbey received the prize for the most comical make-up. There was plenty of amusement and partners for refreshments were chosen by distributing pictures which had been cut in two. The refreshments were pumpkin pie and nuts.

Mrs. Reinhardt is Hostess.
Mrs. Charles Reinhardt entertained a company of ladies at her home on North Fayette street, Friday evening at a Hallowe'en party. The house was prettily decorated in keeping with the Hallowe'en season. Each lady brought fancy work and sewing was enjoyed for a while, the remainder of the afternoon being devoted to games and a social time. In the guessing contest, Mrs. Roberts won first prize and the consolation prize was awarded to Mrs. J. LeCastro. A delightful luncheon was served.

At Anderson Home.
Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Henderson, who reside near Litterberry, entertained a company of sixty friends at a Hallowe'en party Friday evening at their home. The house was elaborately decorated for the occasion, autumn leaves and shock corn being used in the dining room. An old witch, with her black cat, broom and kettle, occupied the place of honor at the table. The decorations in the other rooms consisted of Jack-o-Lanterns, corn and autumn leaves. The evening was very pleasantly spent in playing various Hallowe'en games, music, readings and contests, and during the hours a one course luncheon was served.

Party at Litterberry.
Miss B. Lochart entertained a company of forty-five people at a Hallowe'en party Thursday evening at her home near Litterberry. The house was decorated in keeping with the Hallowe'en season and a pleasant evening was spent with games and music. Progressive euchre was played and first prizes were awarded to Mrs. John Lochart and Walter Hamilton and the two second prizes were won by Miss Anna Newell and Thomas Newell. In the contest for pinning the tail of a mule the first prize was awarded to Dr. H. C. Fortune and second prize was won by Mrs. Frank Hopkins. Music was furnished by Oliver Lindsay and Edward Newell and during the evening refreshments were served. Among the guests from a distance were Misses Rose and Katie Maslin, Misses Sarah, Anna and Mary Devlin and Mrs. Peter Lochart and son James of Virginia and Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner of this city.

Masquerade Party.
About twenty-five nurses of Passavant hospital and their friends enjoyed a masquerade party Friday evening at the nurse's home at the hospital. Many unique costumes were in evidence and a very delightful evening was spent with games and music. During the hours a luncheon was served.

Brooklyn Church Choir.
The members of the Brooklyn M. E. church choir were entertained Friday night at the home of the chairman of the musical committee, Leroy Potter on South East street. The decorations were in keeping with the Hallowe'en idea. As the guests entered a life sized ghost greeted them. The parlor was decorated in yellow, bunting, leaves, fodder and pumpkins and the evening was spent merrily in playing games, the prize being awarded to Miss Catherine Milburn. Several Ghost stories were also told. At a suitable time refreshments of pumpkin pie, doughnuts, milk and candy were served. The choir also took time to run over some special music which they will give at Thanksgiving time. Misses Estelle Schofield, Nina Wright, Eva Potter and Frank Pourn, members of the musical committee assisted in the entertaining.

Dr. Harris Entertains Class.
The Junior Loyal Sons of Central Christian church were entertained Friday evening by their teacher, Dr. E. C. Harris, 1127 Mound avenue. After enjoying an interesting "spook party" the boys were served excellent Hallowe'en refreshments and left for their homes after an evening very enjoyable. The Loyal Sons present were Harold Stewart, Harold White, Harold Conley, Lee Tendick, Harold Moses, Louis Loug, Jr., Byron Sibbe, Richard McCarty, Keith Hogan, Charles Prentice and Chester Conley.

Were Cleverly Costumed.
Clever costumes and artistic autumn decorations were features of a delightful Hallowe'en event at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Parker, 265 West College street. The hostesses were Mrs. Parker, Miss Lydia Kuehling and Mrs. Ida Madison and much merriment was created as the guests arrived in two and three in costumes strange and odd. Vari-colored brownies were used as favors at the luncheon, which was served at a late hour in the dining room.

At Donovan Home.
Forty friends gathered for a delightful Hallowe'en event Friday evening at the home of Patrick Donovan, 208 Anna street. In the games, prizes were won by Mrs. D. M. Keating, Miss May Thompson, D. M. Keating and Frank Shannon. The consolation prize went to Miss Katherine Hines.

Hard Time Party.
A Hallowe'en hard time party was given by Miss Helen Obermeyer at her home on North Church street Friday evening which was attended by twelve couples. The house was very elaborately decorated for the occasion. At the entrance stood a ghost uniquely made. In the parlor were decorations of corn fodder, jack-o-lanterns, pumpkins, with portiers of crepe paper and pumpkins. Camp stools were used in the room. In the sitting room there were crepe paper curtains with Hallowe'en emblems upon them, asparagus and Jack-o-lanterns. The dining room was pretty indeed, the tables being dressed with Hallowe'en bunting and from the chandelier ran to the four corners of the room rows of black cats, pumpkins and witches. There was a large pumpkin at each end of the table. Apples, doughnuts, cider, salads, pickles and olives were served. The place cards for the boys consisted of tiny bears holding a stick which bore the name of the guest; the girls had as place cards little tables with pots of flowers. Unique souvenirs were given consisting of black strings to which had been tied tiny pumpkins filled with candles. The fortune telling booth was a favorite place for all. Mrs. Harry Obermeyer who assisted the hostess acted as the fortune teller. Prizes in the contests were won by Harry Hadden, Lawrence Goveia and Miss Irene Scott.

A Hallowe'en Anniversary.
A merry company of forty-five friends gathered Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Agn. M. Robinson, 853 North Main street, in celebration of the festival of All Saints and also the wedding anniversary of the host and hostess, who were married twenty years ago today. The evening was spent with games, music and dancing and much merriment was afforded by a mock wedding ceremony. The younger people built a large outdoor bonfire in the course of the evening and enjoyed a marshmallow roast. Miss Frieda Unland of Mercedola was a guest of honor.

CO-OPERATION IS THEME AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BANQUE.

University of Illinois Expert Discusses Problems and Possibilities of Jacksonville—Commissioner Brennan Discusses Water Situation.

Community co-operation and the responsibility of the citizen in making the city a better place in which to live, was the theme of the address by Dr. R. E. Hieronymus, community adviser at the state university, at the first Chamber of Commerce luncheon, served at six o'clock at the Peacock Inn and attended by the city commissioners and a representative number of Jacksonville business men.

Dr. Hieronymus touched upon the Jacksonville water problem as elaborated by Commissioner Brennan. He said that although this is a beautiful city, that is no reason why by general co-operation it can not be made more beautiful and improved in other respects. He was greeted by Mr. Brennan, who spoke in his address of the excellent status of the water situation in the city at the present time. J. J. Reeve, president of the Chamber of Commerce, called the meeting to order, introducing Dr. J. R. Barker as toastmaster. Secretary Fritchey made announcements relative to the program today, mentioning the address by Dr. Hieronymus and the barbecue. It is urged that the merchants, so far as possible, decorate their establishments in celebration of the day.

RETURN STEAMERS TO ITALY.

Rome, Oct. 30.—Several incidents caused by the capture by British and French warships of Italian steamers suspected of carrying contraband, especially from the United States to Austria and Germany, have been solved satisfactorily as a result of the friendly attitude adopted by the French foreign minister, Theophile Del Casse.

GAVE SUPERB RECITAL IN COLLEGE GYMNASIUM

Mrs. Genevieve Clark Wilson Delights Large Audience by Artistic Singing.

Mrs. Genevieve Clark Wilson's song recital, took place in the Illinois college gymnasium before a large audience last night. This is the first time in some years that any of the concerts of the conservatory have been given in the gymnasium, and it proved to be a most favorable hall for music. The evening's program was introduced by Miss Alice Phillips, who gave a most interesting demonstration of the Dalcroze system of Eurhythmics, a course which has been inaugurated at the conservatory this fall. At the close of her talk, she gave illustrations of the various rhythms and body movements. Mr. Munger accompanying on the piano these different examples of Eurhythmic motion.

Mrs. Wilson's program was varied and beautiful, its only defect being its shortness. In the opening number, "The Day is Done," by Spross, the long and wonderfully sustained phrases gave true delight to the musician's heart, and gave to the text, its fullest meaning. The Haendel number, which came next, also proved the singer's absolute command of breath and phrasing. In the splendid Russian songs, of Tchaikowski and Rachmaninoff, there was such a wealth of color, such a depth of feeling, that it seemed there could be no greater composers of song than these two Slavs. The Rachmaninoff song gave a most difficult task to the accompanist, and Mr. Munger proved himself quite equal to the task. "The Dove" and "The Bow-legged Boy" formed a contrasting group, the second coming as a real relief to the poignant sadness of the first. Also the two Lehmann songs brought two styles of composition to forward, but in reversed order. The "Magdalen at Michael's Gate" is particularly lovely. It was a pleasure to hear again the song by Miss Dunlap, a student of composition at the conservatory—the song entitled, "Is it the Spring." The French group at the end was perhaps the best of all. She seemed to feel herself quite at ease in these dainty, yet dramatic, Gallic compositions, and gave of her superb voice generously and freely, fairly carrying the audience off their feet with the "Daughters of Cadiz."

Mr. Munger's accompaniments were as usual, most sympathetic and satisfactory. His work at the piano added greatly to the pleasure of the evening.

Friday was the last day of service in the Morgan county circuit court, and three cases were added to the docket, which carries just about the average number for the term.

W. N. Hairgrove filed a suit on behalf of R. K. DeFreitas against the Security Insurance Company for $1,000.
